#1 :

“He became what He was not, but He did not cease to be what He always was.”

John Owen

#2 :

Philippians 2:6-7

...though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men.

#3 :

“How glorious then is this willingness of the Son of God to humble himself to be our mediator. What heart can conceive, what tongue can express the glory of that mind of Christ which brought him down from infinite glory to take our nature into union with his so that he could mediate with God on our behalf?”

John Owen

#4 :

John 1:4-5

In him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

#5 :

John 1:11-13

He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of

#6 :

“The virgin birth is a sign of God’s judgment on human nature. The race needs a redeemer but cannot itself produce one: not by its own decision or desire, not by the processes of education and civilization, not as a precipitate of its own evolution. The redeemer must come from outside.”

Macleod
Person of Christ

#7 :

“Jesus Christ is a divine intrusion: the last, great, culminating eruption of the power of God into the plight of man.”

Macleod

#8 :

John 1:18

No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father’s side, he has made him known.

#9 :

John 12:27

“Now is my soul troubled. And what shall I say? ‘Father, save me from this hour?’ But for this purpose I have come to this hour. Father, glorify your name.”

#10 :

Hebrews 2:14-15

Since therefore the children share in the flesh and blood, he himself likewise partook of the same things, that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and deliver all those who through fear of death were subject to lifelong slavery.

#11 :

“If you would have joy, bend yourself down to this place. There you will find that boy given for you who is your Creator lying in a manger. I will stay with that boy as he nurses, is washed, and dies... There is no joy but in this boy. Take him away and you face the Majesty which terrifies... I know of no God but this one in the manger.”

#12 :

Philippians 2:9-11

Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

#13 :

John 14:3

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also.

#14 :

Hebrews 9:27-28

And just as it is appointed for man to die once, and after that comes judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

#15 :

“Who is he that is exalted above all? Who is he who has been surrounded with glory, majesty and power? Who is he who is seated at the right hand of the Majesty on high, all his enemies being made his footstool? Is it not he who while in this world was poor, despised, persecuted and slain for us? Is it not the same Jesus who loved us and gave himself for us and washed us from our sin in his own blood? If we value his love, if we realize what he has done and suffered for the church, we cannot but rejoice in his present state and glory. Blessed Jesus! We can add nothing to you, nothing to your glory. But it is a joy to us that you are what you are – that you are so gloriously exalted at the right hand of God. We long to behold that glory more and more according to your prayer and promise. Amen.”

John Owen
