"What we believe affects how we live."

"One day as I was passing into the field, this sentence fell upon my soul: 'Thy righteousness is in heaven.' And with the eyes of my soul I saw Jesus at the Father's right hand. 'There,' I said, 'is my righteousness!' So that wherever I was or whatever I was doing, God could not say to me, 'Where is your righteousness?' For it is always right before him. I saw that it is not my good frame of heart that made my righteousness better, nor yet my bad frame that made my righteousness worse, for my righteousness is Christ.... Now my chains fell off indeed. My temptations fled away, and I lived sweetly at peace with God". John Bunyan

"I am in prison in body, but my mind is free to study Christ, and how to me He is kind. For though men keep my outward man, within their locks and bars, yet by the faith of Christ I can mount higher than the stars. Their fetters cannot spirits tame, Nor tie up God from me; My faith and hope they cannot lame, above them I shall be." John Bunyan
