Ephesians 4:17-32

Whether you follow sports or the Phoenix Suns or not, what are the ways in which a city's 'energy' towards something positive can provide connection between various types of people?

What are some other positive ways in which a community or a city can be united and energized around a certain movement? How might North join in on some of those to help us connect locally?

What is one way in which God has seemingly shown you something this past week? How did you respond to his nudging during that time? Did you share that with someone else, why or why not?

Read Ephesians 4:17-32 together.

Pray.

Reflect on the passage, what jumps out to you as significant?

What does freedom in Christ mean to you?

What does dependence on God have to do with our freedom in Christ? How do those go hand in hand?

Do you think people need each other in order to have a growing, vibrant and Biblical understanding of being a Christ-follower? Why or why not?

How does being the church require people to be together? List out as many ways people should be together. What is one of those ways of being together comes the easiest to you? What is the most difficult. Why or why not?

What is one way you hope to 'be the church' this week?

Pray.
