

Why Church? (Part 2)

Application Questions

The following questions have been provided to assist you in applying the truths of Scripture to your life and in discussing today's sermon with your family and fellow believers. These are also reviewed as part of our community groups.

1. What is the church's mission? List some issues that commonly distract churches from focusing on their mission.
2. Who are some of the people you can share the Gospel with in your circle of relationships? How can you proactively identify others? Be creative.
3. What steps can you take to strategically build relationships for sharing the Gospel? How can you show others you are more interested in them than in your own plans?
4. How comfortable are you in sharing the Gospel with someone else? What can you do to grow more comfortable?
5. Identify some areas you could use other believer's help and encouragement. How are pursuing help from others within the church?
6. Who are you encouraging to follow Christ? Who can you discuss and share the Word of God with?
7. What would it look like for you to take one step forward in calling an unbeliever to faith? One step forward in teaching a believer to follow?

January 9, 2011

Why Church? (Part 2)

Application Questions

The following questions have been provided to assist you in applying the truths of Scripture to your life and in discussing today's sermon with your family and fellow believers. These are also reviewed as part of our community groups.

1. What is the church's mission? List some issues that commonly distract churches from focusing on their mission.
2. Who are some of the people you can share the Gospel with in your circle of relationships? How can you proactively identify others? Be creative.
3. What steps can you take to strategically build relationships for sharing the Gospel? How can you show others you are more interested in them than in your own plans?
4. How comfortable are you in sharing the Gospel with someone else? What can you do to grow more comfortable?
5. Identify some areas you could use other believer's help and encouragement. How are pursuing help from others within the church?
6. Who are you encouraging to follow Christ? Who can you discuss and share the Word of God with?
7. What would it look like for you to take one step forward in calling an unbeliever to faith? One step forward in teaching a believer to follow?

January 9, 2011